Pleasure, Procreation, and Punishment: Shocking Facts about Sex and Marriage in the Ancient World

Sex is a basic human need, common to all people at all times. A make-money-quick scheme made during a period of financial turmoil, this image aimed to appeal to the base instincts of a lower class clientele, who could afford an etching but not a painting.

5 Artists who Love Painting Female Nudes

These statues were placed in market gardens in order to discourage trespassing. Couples engaging in sexual acts were shown laughing and enjoying the sexual encounter with their partner; this focused on the positivity of sex.

The Secret Sex Lives Of Witches

Pornography, as Adorno already noted, lacks the beginning-middle-end form characteristic of literature Sontag 1994: 39. The belief in an afterlife was all important to the Egyptians; they believe that as the union of male and female was a necessity for the creation of a new being, the erotic force also enables a person who had departed from this life to continue existing in the afterlife.

Yet, the basic reason for wanting to depict unclothed figures has remained constant over time: the human body is a wonderful sight to behold, both clothed and unclothed. Each apparently had her own specialty when approaching the world's oldest profession. Do you prefer a warm bath? To this day, these etchings remain a relative secret, although their frank depiction of unglamorised sex would find followers well into the 21st century.
