Protecting Student Privacy

Although Barton Community College has endeavored to create a secure and reliable Site for you, the confidentiality of any communication or material transmitted to or from Barton Community College via the Site or email cannot be guaranteed.

Privacy Disclosure

Privacy practices in social network sites often appear paradoxical, as content-sharing behavior stands in conflict with the need to reduce disclosure-related harms.

Protecting Student Privacy

As one does this, boundaries are permeated and become co-owned.

Some of the third parties described in this privacy policy, which provide services to us under contract, are based in other countries that may not have equivalent privacy and data protection laws to your home country. Department of Education is committed to protecting student privacy. Anita Allen emphasizes the limitations of privacy regulations in health care, and the discrimination and disadvantages these regulations lead to for people of color and women.

However, what is termed private in these multiple contexts varies.

Privacy Policy

In addition, boundary turbulence occurs when a co-owner intentionally breaks the coordinated boundary of privacy to disclose private information. You can give any of your health professionals your consent to share your health information, for example, when you change doctors and you want your new doctor to have access to your medical history. Disclosure to a new party was not the intent, but, when it happens, other co-owners can feel that their expectations of maintaining boundaries have been violated.
