Although the itself had been lost to France in 1477, the were still intact when , heir to the Netherlands via his grandmother , was born in in 1500. Philip, on the other hand, was raised in Spain and spoke neither Dutch nor French. England and Spain were now at war.

The Counsel of Thomas Radcliffe, Earl of Sussex, to Queen Elizabeth I Concerning the Revolt of the Netherlands, September 1578 on JSTOR

This victory had historic consequences far beyond the Eighty Years' War as it marked the end of Spain as the dominant sea power.

Rivalry with Spain

By that time Maurice was engaged in conquering important cities in the Netherlands.
