This year it's 100 years since he was born, and once again there are forces trying to relegate homosexual desire into dark closets. Curated by Berndt Arell, in cooperation with Fotografiska's exhibition producer Jessica Jarl, The Darkroom is an exciting study in artist Tom of Finland's born Touko Laaksonen life and work-process — something that originally took place in dark rooms.

Half a dozen restaurants and cafés operate adjacent to the museum, so there is little danger of hunger striking during museum visits.

The Darkroom

Our core values include equality, as a museum and as a workplace, and we do not accept any form of discrimination on our premises. En español: Osos tallados en madera en Finlandia.
