Full text of Society of Friends vindicated : being the arguments of the counsel of Joseph Hendrickson, in a cause decided in the Court of Chancery of the state of New Jersey, between Thomas L. Shotwell, complainant, and Joseph Hendrickson and Stacy Decow,

Did they study to conceal their doctrin. In the preface to his Confession of Faith, the author enlarges with much force of argument on the doctrinal absurdities and practical mischiefs which arise from the belief of three persons in one God; shewing that it introduceth, in fact, three Gods, and thus subverteth the unity of God so frequently inculcated in Scripture.

The only specious objection against this bill was, that it set the religion by law, in both parts of the island, upon a different foot, directly contrary to the Union; because, by an Act passed this very session against occasional conformity, our Dissenters were shut out from all employments. The Buddhist faith calls it Nirvana, 1 i.

Thomas Manton: Complete Works of Thomas Manton, D.D. Vol. IV

The tendency of directing our thoughts upon different persons or objects of worship to degrade our conceptions of the infinite perfections of the Divine nature is strikingly illustrated in the following passage:— The supposed economy of the Divine nature carries with it many injurious reflections on the honour and perfections of the blessed God. For it is not hard to see how intimately the secondary controversies of the time were connected with that main and central one, which not only engrossed so much attention on the part of theologians and students, but became a subject of too general conversation in every coffee-house and place of public resort. This is not a new question, hut one which is well settled and concerning which there can be but little difficulty.

A Fair and Impartial Testimony...Against the Backslidings, Corruptions, Divisions, and Prevailing Evils...

Now let us consider WHEN THIS RESPECT MAY DEGENERATE INTO SINFUL ADMIRATION. If, on the contrary, in the manner referred to, one leaves it all these properties, one is guilty of a concealed petitio principii, for one has assumed the Quæsitæ beforehand as Data. He sat in it and it floated like a boat.

Robert Hall Quotes. S. Austin Allibone, comp. 1880. Prose Quotations from Socrates to Macaulay

The Word is compared to light, only God by this works above all light. There is evidence, that Elias Hicks declared of Fox and Bar clay r that if they had honestly spoken, out, they would have agreed with him, but that they kept silence from motives of poli- cy, in which he justified them, because the temper of the times would not bear an open declaration of their real sentiments.
