Stability & Security

The release of the initial has highlighted some interesting — and intriguing — trends for New Zealand. They made national security a high priority, were skeptical of international institutions such as the League, and showed no interest on the questions of self-determination, democracy, and human rights.

NZ trade policy

Hadlee was one of the best pace bowlers of his generation, playing 86 Tests for New Zealand, before he retired in 1990. Pity the current NZ government fails to see it that way.

America's Most Trusted Allies Regret Saying 'Yes' to China

But this moderately stronger rhetoric may not be the more overt stance that security partners and some within New Zealand have been calling for.

How New Zealand could benefit from Belt and Road Initiative

The New Zealand cricket team became known as the Blackcaps in January 1998, after its sponsor at the time, , held a competition to choose a name for the team.

NZ trade policy

Chris Cairns made his debut one year before Hadlee retired in 1990. As of 6 December 2020, New Zealand have played 1348 international matches, winning 516, losing 608, tying 15 and drawing 166 matches while 44 matches ended as no result. But China features prominently in the next four.
