Old English subjunctive

Fowler's Dictionary of Modern English Usage. The covert mandative is very unusual in American English.

BBC Learning English

My teacher always scolds me for writing run-on sentences and leaving dangling modifiers and such... so sue me. It's great that we are here on time. There are many historical cases, but Old English has only five of them

English subjunctive

If I were the teacher, I would know the answer.

The subjunctive & Unferth

Even the most persnickety rules require it only in a limited number of situations and expressions, and many speakers and writers use it even less often.
