

American policy toward black Africa - the cold war paradigm

University of Birmingham - Holding Onto the Cold War

'Taking off the CW lens'

- 'Taking off the Cold War lens' (Matthew Connelly)
- Cold War as a Eurocentric paradigm
- Algeria: US policy was shaped by race and notions of North-South conflict
- So the idea of 'taking off the Cold War lens' is both an analytical tool and a means of understanding the mindsets through which contemporary actors operated.
- Do you agree with the framework? What about other cases (e.g. USA in the Congo and Zanzibar?)
