

Robert Owen - schools & society for a new age

University Press of America - NEW LANARK: SCHOOLS, MILLS, THE OWEN HOME

Description: -

-

Egypt -- Civilization.

Egypt -- Antiquities.

Industrial arts -- History.

Educational sociology

Owen, Robert, -- 1771-1858 Robert Owen - schools & society for a new age

-Robert Owen - schools & society for a new age

Notes: Bibliography: p. 226-238

This edition was published in 1975

Filesize: 36.97 MB

Tags: #Robert #Owen #Memorial #Primary #School

Robert Owen Jr

See Also: Facts about Robert Owen 10: the factory workers Owen was concerned with the life condition of the workers in their factory. Robert Owen: Seventeen years ago, a number of individuals, with myself, purchased the New Lanark establishment from Mr. On this day a new era opens to our view.

Owen, Robert (1771

My aim is therefore to withdraw the germ of all party from society.

Britain's First Nursery

The causes which fashioned me in the womb,—the circumstances by which I was surrounded from my birth, and over which I had no influence whatever, formed me with far other faculties, habits, and sentiments. He was capable to accumulate the wealth in the beginning of 1800s. The communities alluded to shall be more particularly described in a future publication.

Robert Owen

Another son, William Owen, admitted that the town often attracted the wrong people.

Robert Owen Jr

How to cite this piece: Owen, R.

NEW LANARK: SCHOOLS, MILLS, THE OWEN HOME

But, in unison with the principle thus stated, it has ever been my intention that as this Institution, when completed, will accommodate more than the children of parents resident at the village, any persons living at Lanark, or in the neighbourhood anywhere around, who cannot well afford to educate their children, shall be at liberty, on mentioning their wishes, to send them to this place, where they will experience the same care and attention as those who belong to the establishment. Although these children were well fed their limbs were very generally deformed, their growth was stunted, and although one of the best schoolmasters was engaged to instruct these children regularly every night, in general they made very slow progress, even in learning the common alphabet. I have stated that I found the population of this place similar to that of other manufacturing districts.

Related Books

- Strength to meet our national need - a statement approved by reresentatives of the constituent membe
- Revolución y la crítica de la cultura
- Voie Maritime du st-Laurent - Une Réalité.
- Vũ trang quân chúng cách mạng xây dựng quân đội nhân dân
- De Moscou a Beyrouth - essai sur la désinformation /Léon Poliakov.. --