Proclus and his Legacy. Millenium

And be not prodigal out of season, like one who knows not what is decent and honourable. They constantly attributed these Verses to Pythagoras, not that they believed that this philosopher had himself composed them, but because they knew that his disciple, whose work they were, had revealed the exact doctrine of his master and had based them all upon maxims issued from his mouth! Lloyd , 635 , fixed is.

Neoplatonism, the philosophy of the commentators

. Under no circumstances did he neglect to render the customary homages, and on fixed yearly dates he went to visit the tombs of the Attic heroes, those of the philosophers, of his friends, and acquaintances; he performed the rites prescribed by religion, and not through some deputy, but personally.
