John Pawson designs his own Home Farm in the Cotswolds

What about shadow or darkness? Maryam Eisler: How would you like your legacy to be pondered upon? Throughout its pages, this book explores Pawson's unique approach to proportion and light and his precise language of windows, doors, and walls. There are four bedrooms upstairs, three of which have terraces, the master bathroom's boasting a hot tub and a fire pit. Maryam Eisler: So, if I say the or near Osaka in Japan... John Pawson: I could relate to these projects.

His work has won him different awards including RIBA awards for the Sackler Crossing at the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, and the Frate Sole International Prize for Sacred Architecture for the new Cistercian monastery of Lady of Novy Dvur in Bohemia. Already known to designers for his austere yet luxurious interiors, he has attained immense public acclaim for his high-profile retail projects such as the Calvin Klein flagship store in New York, his celebrity clients like Martha Stewart and his book Minimum Phaidon, 1996.

John Pawson Works

John Pawson Works features ten of Pawson's projects, each one treated as a case study of the design process as experienced by architect, client and critic. Either through the serenity of your architectural spaces or your peaceful, well measured photography... John Pawson: We do have a drawer of thank you letters. A fine copy but for the dust wrapper.

John Pawson: Themes and Projects

With the house being so long, he decided to install a kitchen at each end of the building along with a third kitchen in the separate guest house. John Pawson: Yes I think.
