Other studies show how vast and how deep the communication of doctrines and rules related to contract has been across the Channel. Consequently, on the one hand, creating a code does not cancel the existence and the importance of other legal formants. Possibly yes, provided that scholars are ready to acknowledge that the circulation of legal models and legal transplants may have taken place even across boundaries that today are perceived as difficult to cross.

The comparison of civil law and common law

To a greater or lesser extent, paradoxically, it would appear that we may claim that the socialist legal family is dead and buried, but the same does not apply to the socialist legal tradition.

UPDATE: Comparative Law

From this standpoint, it may be argued that the future of legal families does look less taxonomic and overarching than previous classifications and approaches.
