Africa Quotes (773 quotes)

In fact, the complete story of Africa cannot be told without making mention of its many wars. . The new black administrators and the burgeoning elites enjoyed the same economic and social life-styles and privileges which the imperial administrators enjoyed.

Legacies of colonialism in Africa

Africa has suffered the worst genocide and holocaust at the hands of the architects of slavery and colonialism. African leaders cherish and incubate corruption which has continued to affect the continent. In other words, if you don't obey what the World Bank and the IMF say then you must pay back the debt and because you cannot pay back the debt, you must obey whatever they tell you to do.

Bottlenecks to Development in Africa

From her cottage with just 4 employees, this organization has grown to become a trailblazer in an industry dominated by men.

African Predicament

This cannot be taken for granted, however. Programmes of Government help to aspiring African businessmen have not often proved a good substitute for hard work and the good business sense that is acquired through experience. Europeans continue to own millions and millions of hectares of the best land in Africa.

Legacies of colonialism in Africa

It is a soundless echo. They end up being nothing better than emancipated slaves.
