Recollections and Letters of General Robert E. Lee

Davis, but do not think they will be successful with the reflecting or informed portion of the country. Obviously on several fundamental questions the disagreement of both sides was notorious; we all knew that. As I look back to those days I am inclined to believe that the type of life I led at my home, my experiences in the veld where we worked and played together in groups, introduced me at an early age to the ideas of collective effort.

Extract from Margaret Bayard Smith's Recollection of a Visit to Monticello, [29 July

In return I had a very polite letter, expressing a wish that I should review it. Which character in the book would you most like to meet? Many of the personalities that featured in your remarkable dream lived, simply and without written records, some 3 centuries ago.

Conversations with Nietzsche: A Life in the Words of His Contemporaries

In this process an important role is played by custom, ritual and taboo, and I came to possess a fair amount of information in this regard...In our home there were other dependents, boys mainly, and at an early age I drifted away from my parents and moved about, played and ate together with other boys.

Rebecca Solnit and Mary Beard: Recollections of My...

He had mentally resolved to ascertain by what means the process of splitting of bars of iron was accomplished; and, without communicating his intention to a single human being, he proceeded to Hull, and thence, without funds, worked his passage to the Swedish iron port.

Conversations with Myself by Nelson Mandela, Paperback

Ever and ever God bless you, my dearest friend.

Spanking Magazine Stories: Recollections

In one battle at Newmarket, of which I shall have occasion to speak later in my letters, they distinguished themselves in a conspicuous way under the leadership of Colonel Shipp, who is still their commandant. You had all some of the crackling — and brain sauce — did you remember to rub it with butter, and gently dredge it a little, just before the crisis? Save in the defense of my native state shall I ever again draw my sword. This is the only tribute that can now be paid to the worth of its noble officers and soldiers, and I am anxious to collect the necessary information for the history of its campaigns, including the operations in the Valley and in Western Virginia, from its organisation to its final surrender.
