KRISHNA IN PERFORMING ARTS

Even your fantasies are teachers. Today it is easily the most highly intricate and refined form of dance-drama. Two developments should be noted.

Krishna in Legends and Arts, Rajasthan Art, Rajasthani Crafts,

Challenges, obstacles, adversities abound as do our fear, uncertainties and hesitations. Chapters 3 and 4 give comprehensive information on the multi-hued nature of Krishna's influence on dance, theatre, operas, ballads and music respectively. He is supreme consciousness and supreme bliss.

The other side of Gayatri Krishna: From being a corporate crusader to performing arts

Chapter 2 makes a comparative assessment between Shiva and Krishna, the two presiding deities of Indian performing. Another endearing and simple image, with profound philosophical consequences, is that of the baby Krishna sucking his toe, lying on a banyan leaf.

KRISHNA IN PERFORMING ARTS

There are whole Schools of Indian dance forms, music, and paintings that are solely dedicated to Sri Krishna. Krishna, partner at , has been one of the main functionaries at Ranga Shankara ever since, an association that eventually led to her launching a somewhat similar performing arts platform called Bhoomija. Myths and legends associated with him pervade India's literature as well as its visual and performing arts.
