Taishan Shadow Puppet Play Analysis

We avoided this in two ways — first, by including the hands of the film-makers, puppeteering, which made the artifice visible, while simultaneously making the puppets seem more vulnerable. Roger Long was also interested in this subject: Javanese Shadow Theater: Movement and Characterization in Ngayogyakarta Wayang Kulit 1982 , as was Victoria Clara Van Groenendael in The Dalang Behind the Wayang 1985 , among others. Among the first Chinese texts were the Song Yuan Xiqu History of Theatre during the Song and Yuan Dynasties by Wang Kuwei 1924 and the Dongjing Menghualu Souvenirs of the Eastern Capital by Meng Yuan-lao, in which are descriptions of , rod and , performances by live actors and puppets as well as portraits of famous puppeteers.

The two would-be puppeteers took their creations home.

Puppetry

It will be manipulated live on stage and also used to create a stop motion animation. Puppetry is used in almost all human societies both as an entertainment - in performance - and ceremonially in rituals and celebrations such as carnivals. Wooden and metal puppets on Java reflect the influence of the Chinese; Bali still uses leather ones to tell Hindu-based stories.
