Andrew Undershaft, Leadenhall Street, where his widow erected a terra cotta monument to his memory, this, which shows the man as he lived, is one of the most interesting monuments in the city of a past London worthy. The ordina- tion took place accordingly, and the new minister was happily settled, among a united people, and with a comfortable proviaon for his sup- port. But Oglethorpe's honors were not unshared by Tomochi-chi, the aged mico, to whom an ode with eleven stanzas was composed.

But as a class, they were capable of subduing the wilderness, introducing the arts of pastoral life, tak- ing care of their families, founding a town, and setting up a church. None but the enterprising and hardy would be disposed to find a home in such a wilderness ; none but the industrious could live and thrive here. By master is also understood a principal who employs another to perform some act or do something for him. Matter in deed is such matter as may be proved or established by a deed or specialty.
