The mentor programme for Initial Teacher Training (ITT)

Huberman 1989 introduced the notion of career trajectories that describe a series of pathways, or options, that occur during teachers' careers.

The role of a mentor

To help promote equality and diversity in the classroom the teacher can be proactive and challenge and instances of discrimination that may arise. Elementary teachers are responsible for teaching core subjects like math, English, science and history. In doing so, they can be encouraged to further explore strengths and challenges in their work.

Explain the teaching role and responsibilities in education and training.

Thus, many teachers simply stood in front of the class and delivered the same lessons year after year, growing gray and weary of not being allowed to change what they were doing. Mentors are experienced, patient, knowledgeable veteran teachers who are selected to guide new teachers.
