Ladies and gentlemen - a round of applause please for this great American who turned this great idea into reality. Among the earliest settlers in and about the village were the families of Trewig, Harman, Snare, and Clemens. The Chapman mansion, the quarters of Knox and Hamilton, and now owned by Edward Johnson, on the opposite side of Jericho a mile from Brownsburg, is in excellent condition, and is the best house of the Revolutionary period we have seen in the county.
