Daniel S. Robinson, Contemporary Philosophy in Scandinavia

The move into modern forms had little effect upon the manufacturing processes at Gustavsberg, which remained essentially craft-based. One sees clearly, with vision unobstructed by distraction. One of those is for brands to first release a faithful homage or reissue and then, if successful, follow it up with new dials and finishes that make it much more unique and modern.

The Philosophy of Scandinavian Design

Some writers on the history of Pietism — e. Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation. Some believe this led to a new form of justification by works.

The Characteristics That Define Scandinavian Design

Some vestiges of Pietism were still present in 1957 at the time of the formation of the United Church of Christ. Rather than serving just one function — such as a say, that would only be used on occasion for special events — open-plan, flexible spaces could accommodate a variety of activities, furthering the practicality of their design.

The Difference Between Scandinavian Design and Minimalism

The theological chairs in the new university were filled in complete conformity with Spener's proposals. The Swedes were searching for a design style that combined simplicity with beauty, humanism and democratic ideals.

Essay: Scandinavian Moderne: 1900

The brilliant Scandinavian designers who rewrote history with their innovative designs include Alvar Aalto; Poul Henningsen; Arne Jacobsen; Borge Mogensen; Verner Panton; Hans J. Bush became associated with the Journal as co-editor. You can invest in high-quality pieces, or look for diamonds in the rough at thrift stores and garage or stoop sales.
