It reflects American culture because once long ago the Indians possessed our continent. Hope you will like it and give your comments and suggestions. Because entries are organized by journal, the annual index of authors, subjects, and titles is essential for locating specific articles.

Good Indians...Dead Indians...

The lesson to be learned is that only those collections which indicate clearly the sources from which their proverbs have been derived can be relied upon.

Jan Harold Brunvand

It implies that even those Indians who have assimilated the ways of the white masters will in due time return to their primitive and traditional ways, i. The descriptively annotated entries are listed in 10 divisions: general folklore; prose narrative; song, game, and dance; drama; ritual and festival; belief and practice; material culture; speech; proverbs; and riddles. They permit one only to discuss subject matter and that in very general terms.

The Collection And Study Of Proverbs

The New York Times Late City Final Edition. These two varieties of collection offer very useful information that can be used in critical and historical discussion. I know 'the only good German is a dead German', but he enjoys killing them.

THE STUDY OF PROVERBS by Archer Taylor

He doesn't really believe but can still find the humor involved with it. To locate specific motifs, users should begin with the outline prefacing each division or the thorough analytical subject index.

Dictionary of English Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases (Illustrated) by Thomas Preston

In the meantime the proverb as a direct slur against the Native Americans continues to be in use, an ever ready invective to be cited to keep the painful stereotype alive. That is exactly what the bigoted James Michael Cavanaugh meant in his 1868 speech in the United States House of Representatives cited above, when he said to Mr.
