Petworth House

Designed to display the taste, lifestyle and artistic patronage of generations, the state rooms of Petworth House contain the finest collection of paintings and sculpture in the care of the National Trust, including major works by Van Dyck, Turner, Reynolds and Gainsborough. These bays are situated in the Cowyard car park in Petworth Town, which is close to the House and entrance, but do require pre-booking by calling the property beforehand as there are only a limited number available.

Petworth House, Sussex

As an insight into the lives of past estate workers the has been established in High Street, Petworth, furnished as it would have been in about 1910. The Chapel Left: Entrance, inside the house, to the present chapel, with balcony and imposing arms above. It was very much inspired by the and aimed to establish Petworth as a rival to these European palaces.

Petworth House, Sussex

We last visited ages ago and this time although most of the house is closed off due to the current situation the very impressive gallery remains open, so too the Chapel, Kitchens and Servants Quarters.

Petworth House

Our Christmas event, A Grand Tour Christmas opens on Saturday 2 December until 1 January 2018.

Petworth House

But for now, this is still a lovely place to visit. You can visit both the deer park and Pleasure Gardens all year round and enjoy the stunning scenery and enjoy refreshments in the café.
