Duden

The teaching program of religious education and the selection of text books will be settled with by agreement with the higher ecclesiastical authorities. On 28 March 1933, the bishops themselves took up a position favourable to Hitler.

Reichskanzler

It took Mussolini five years to achieve this; Germany has done it in a week. It had felt threatened by a radical ultranationalist ideology that regarded the papacy as a sinister, alien institution, that opposed denominational separatism in education and culture, and that at times appeared to promote a return to Nordic paganism.

Duden

Their relationship to the Church authorities will be regulated by the provisions of the respective concordats and by the protocols annexed to them, with due regard to the ecclesiastical laws relative to these faculties. Den politisch so unerfahrenen Michaelis löste einer der zu diesem Zeitpunkt erfahrensten deutschen Politiker ab.

Chancellor of Germany

Criticism of the concordat was initially from those countries who viewed Germany as a potential threat. Article 26 allowed that a church wedding could precede a civil marriage ceremony in certain cases. The concordats were generally observed by the countries involved, with the exception of Germany.

Ist das „deutsche Reich“ nie untergegangen?

Often Galen protested directly to Hitler over violations of the concordat.
