Galveston Cemetery Ghost Tour

Virtual Tour of Ross Bay Cemetery This virtual tour highlights some of the styles of markers, types of graves and fascinating people buried in Ross Bay Cemetery.

NY Daily News

A village school house was built on part of the property in 1827 and used by the Methodists on Sunday morning and the Presbyterians in the afternoon. The center structure is currently recognized as a one-and-a-half story structure but originally the building stood two-stories tall and served, among other uses, as dormitory lodging for ten younger class-men of the Snyder School for Boys. If you are interested in a cemetery tour, please follow up with the cemetery directly to see if any upcoming events have been scheduled.
