In his memorandum, General Anderson tells of the brush at the outpost and of the rebuke administered by General Washington as soon as he learned what had happened. Philadelphia: : Printed by J.

Fox, Charles James 1749

Apparently it is okay to be a homosexual, transvestite or any other 'special interest group' but heaven forbid you are just a normal bloke who supposedly flirts with another woman. I never saw such a sight, for not only were there an endless number of chips of all sizes, some as much as six inches by four inches, but in places a considerable number of broken flakes of large size, and above all a host of the curiously worked nuclei from which flakes as much as twelve inches long had been struck 122 TIME AND CHANCE off, to which the country people have given the name of limes de beam. All the women at their doors were busy plaiting straw, with a skilled upward flick; the groom told John that there were great plait markets every Thursday at Berk- hamsted and every Saturday at St.
