Italian Socialist Party

The party strengthened its position in Lombardy, north-eastern Veneto and Friuli-Venezia Giulia and broadened its power base to as all the other parties of Pentapartito coalition, , and were experiencing. In the , the PSI gained good result with 14. With characteristic opportunism, since he was uncertain what side was going to win, he tried to have it both ways.

Benito Mussolini

Most of the party's initial leaders were northern radicals, but most of its support was from voters in the South. The party was a member of the between 1930 and 1940. The purpose of this is not utopian because already in this society, especially in production, some structures are born on future results.

Italian Socialist Republic

Italian industry had traditionally relied on the State for its security both in terms of trade barriers and financial rescue in case of crisis.

Italian Communist Party

It was in Turin as well that a group of young socialist revolutionaries headed by Gramsci had done an intense work of education and propaganda at the rank-and-file level, and the proletariat of Turin led the struggle. Conclusions The peculiar development of Italian society made working-class revolution a real possibility despite the relatively small size of the working class. In October 1917, the armed insurrection — the taking control of strategic positions such as telecommunications and transport, and of key state institutions and forces — was prepared as a defensive struggle, in defence of the revolution against the counter revolutionary forces.

ITALIAN FEDERATIONS history

Thus the US-SNL government that would preside over the Secondo Risorgimento was born.
