We should learn to make the Stations of the Cross as a wonderful way of keeping alive in us a memory of the suffering and death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. What I can say is that the prayer group is practically an inevitable experience for one's spiritual growth.

Bishop Hilary Okeke Blog: 2009

He found three possible sites and photographed them.

Biographies of Blesseds

The abbey was amongst the first of more than sixty monastic communities to be visited by Roseman over a period of several years. But the Lord keeps him: his mind is incredibly clear, and present, and his moral strength is such that he lacks nothing to enable him to face his huge job every day. So many changes of plans for their future took place during 1953 that the faith and humble patience of Cyprian and Clement must have been sorely tried.

Common Catholic Prayer

Dom Joseph Delargy retired as abbot in June 2013, after completing two six-year terms. I was welcomed by Fr. Rupcie's talk was both profound and enlightening; and Fr.
