Her book in progress, Between Two Rivers, is a political travelogue of ancient and sacred sites in Iraq. Bob was off on another assignment, while I had to stay on for a few more weeks to finish my book research. A former honeymoon hotel with a shimmering pool, the Hamra was protected then by armed guards and meters of barbed wire But for a brief moment, there was an odd sense of hope and even levity.

The Truth About Iraq: Memory, Trauma and the End of an Era — The Markaz Review

Ditmars, a freelance writer, visited Iraq several times before Saddam's fall, reporting for such media organizations as the BBC, Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, and The New York Times. I arrived at the prison looking like the avenging sister of a prisoner and the Marines watched me like a hawk.
