Judge Learned Hand Quote

Baltimore: Johns Hopkins University Press, 1965. Given that this is highly unlikely to happen, we must instead be content to acknowledge that what is is contrary to what should be.

8 Bible verses about Reasoning

The benefits of the system have been touted loudly, but the costs of the approach, I fear, have not begun to be tallied. After bearing seven children, I am now the mother of none! There are some things that continue to be repellent and fearful, no matter how fully we understand them and how much their context is widened. All words are contingent and devoid of fixed, referential meaning.

Questioning the Supremacy of Reason

The Reasons Galileo Galilei gave for reliance upon observations instead of Scripture when describing the universe were basic grammatical errors, inconsistencies, contradictions and propositions found in the Bible. In seven pregnancies she had implanted in herself tender love toward them, 7Â and because of the many pains she suffered with each of them she had sympathy for them; 8Â yet because of the fear of God she disdained the temporal safety of her children.

Supremacy of Reason

According to Aristotle, what was distinctive in man was not his bodily processes of sensation, feeling, and impulse, for these he shared with the animals, still less such processes as growth and reproduction, for these he shared with all living things. Deceit, Desire and the Novel: Self and Other in Literary Structure.

The reasons for supremacy of the constitution.

The way to understand the practice or to alter it is to change the conception that has produced it. Stoicism is the most remarkable experiment on record in the surrender of life to reason at the expense of feeling and desire.
