These activities aimed primarily at meeting the need of the palace for medical care, but government sponsorship extended gradually to military and provincial medical administration. In other ways also the landscape gardener produces living effects, much as our best scene painters do it artificially. The scores of idealists and fighters of his cabinet made the way for the constructive men who will now take hold.

Science and Civilisation in China: Volume 6, Biology and Biological Technology; Part 6, Medicine

Djang is the author of many articles in both Chinese and foreign journals and of number of pamphlets among which are. Various morbid influences assail the body from without and from within, and life and health are maintained by the power of the system to resist these and keep in order all its functions in spite of adverse forces. Exports primarily rice and soybeans in 1959 reached a level twice the average of the 1st FYP, while imports mostly wheat fell to the lowest level in six years.
