John Falstaff

Bardolfo and Pistola refuse to deliver the letters, claiming that honour prevents them from obeying him. During these early performances Verdi made substantial changes to the score.

Sir John Falstaff: Character Analysis

The act ends with an ensemble in which the women and the men separately plan revenge on Falstaff, the women gleefully anticipating an enjoyable prank, while the men angrily mutter dire threats.

Falstaff

Rather early in the play, in fact, Hal informs us that his riotous time will soon come to a close, and he will re-assume his rightful high place in affairs by showing himself worthy to his father and others through some unspecified noble exploits.

Sir John Fastolf

To obtain financial advantage, he decides to court two wealthy married women, Mistress Ford and Mistress Page. It took the collaborators three years from mid-1889 to complete. Notorious for a life of dissipation and debauchery somewhat similar to Falstaff, he was among the first to mention Shakespeare in his work in , suggesting to Greenblatt that the older writer may have influenced Shakespeare's characterisation.
