Famous Pantomime Dames

All the traditional pantomime characters appeared in Cinderella. But the Dame also embodies the collective ties which bind us together as families, as neighbours, and as citizens of a particular town or city. Stage designers were famous and often featured in the new illustrated press, with images showing the process of design and construction.

Pantomime Scripts

Once again this use of music hall stars increased pantomimes popularity with ordinary working people.

The History of Pantomime

The productions by Augustus Harris in Drury Lane involved casts 500 strong and were fronted by the biggest music hall stars of the day, people like Dan Leno and Marie Lloyd.

Everything to Know About British Holiday Pantomimes

These plays pull together music, dance, comedy and acting in a unique way that only the bonkers British could ever have done.
