Foster John. Glow

. A good rule of thumb is that series have a conventional name and are intentional creations, on the part of the author or publisher.

Foster John. Glow

. The poems are completely independent of other Oxford Reading Tree Stories, but can be introduced alongside. It is possible that there may be seven year olds on book band red and five year olds on book band turquoise.

Oxford Reading Tree levels follow the book band colours, however over the last few years, there were a few exceptions to this in the Biff, Chip and Kipper Stories. The Teacher Handbook provides definitions and guidance on how to model the comprehension strategies and skills, and use the metacognitive 'think aloud' prompts and strategy tips.

Reading Chest

This printed resource provides accessible, focused support for all levels of the series, including an accessible explanation of the Comprehension Skills Framework and its application across the series. The Oxford Reading Tree is a reading scheme used by the vast majority around 80% of primary schools to help kids aged 4-11 learn to read. Value Bundles contain a collection of the associated Student Books Packs for each Year Level.
