Indigenous candidate seeks to shake up Mexican politics

Nevertheless, it would be dangerous to become complacent in this situation.

The Quick Read About... Mexico's Recent Political Drama

At that time, all of the residents were sympathizers of the autonomous project, although with the passage of time, several of them stopped supporting that movement, leaving a group made up of Support Bases for the Zapatista National Liberation Army BAEZLN. While military researchers and peace activists may have the same kind of personal computers sitting on their desks and send mail and information using the same transmission protocols, they are continually constructing and reconstructing two very different kinds of cyberspace.

AMLO Today

The four indigenous families were displaced and remain in inadequate living conditions, far from their rural home on the outskirts of the city of San Cristóbal, while their attackers occupy their lands. In order to overcome this, the discussion may then sometimes have to use alternative references, e.

Media Practices, Mediation Processes, and Mediatization in the Study of Social Movements

In the Northern Zone, the situation is alarming, according to reports from the Junta of Roberto Barrios. In recent months a group of intellectuals from Latin America has come to support this campaign for the Zapatistas in Chiapas with messages and analysis, and this has unwittingly become a public dialogue about Zapatismo today. We understand that is not the way, fighting and beating each other.
