20 of the Best 18th & 19th Century Women Writers

The lines are from Euripides, Cyclops, lines 141-42, p. Of course, there was still the increasing number of specialized publishers even before the e-book, giving writers a somewhat better chance at publication.

Literary Theology by Women Writers of the Nineteenth Century by Rebecca Styler, Hardcover

She writes about harsh experiences, such as having a hot tea-kettle purposely set on her hand. Fuller had supported the attempt to unify Italy as a Roman republic, but after the Pope was restored to power and the short-lived political experiment had failed, Fuller, her husband and their child fled to Florence in 1849. Margaret was born on May 23, 1810, in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Through her writings, she focused attention on Jewish identity, feminist positions, and homosexual relationships.

Black Women Writers of the 19th Century II

One of the authors has published work in the 20th century, but since my favorite book of hers was published in the 19th century, I have included her in this list. At age thirteen, she had already written her first booklet, The Dandies Rout. We're on a mission to help you find the best love stories in period dramas, movies, shows, and books, Romantic Living inspiration, and more.
