system prevented the princess from meeting people whom her mother and Conroy deemed undesirable including most of her father's family , and was designed to render her weak and dependent upon them.

A European Regiment, called the St Helena Regiment, comprising five companies was formed in 1842 for the purpose of garrisoning the island. The

Why Great Britain Sent its Prisoners to Australia

In what became known as the , Victoria, advised by Melbourne, objected to their removal. A fleet commanded by Captain John Dutton first governor, 1659—1661 in the Marmaduke arrived at St Helena in 1659. He is so sensible, so kind, and so good, and so amiable too.

This was the happiest day of my life! Peel refused to govern under the restrictions imposed by the Queen, and consequently resigned his commission, allowing Melbourne to return to office. The same year, St Helena coffee was sold in London at 1d per pound, making it the most expensive and exclusive in the world.

The Company retook the island in May 1673 without loss of life and reinforced it with 250 troops. The final number up to the 1870s when the depot was finally closed has not yet been accurately determined, but would be over 20,000. The population was to fall gradually from 6,150 in 1817 to less than 4,000 by 1890.
