Old Time Schools and School Books (1917) : Johnson, Clifton: sdk.mavlink.io.au: Books

Additionally, Johnson presents lively scenes of how schoolhouses operated in order to present a larger picture of the development of education, particularly as it unfolded in Massachusetts. He wrote a biography of his friend, John Burroughs, the naturalist, and one of Hudson Maxim, the inventor. Clifton Johnson's extensive collection of school-books, as well as ephemera from his own life, are housed at the Jones Library in Amherst, MA.

Old

A friend of William Dean Howells and John Burroughs, he was an acquaintance of many other late 19th and early 20th century authors and editors.
