Giorgio Morandi Artworks & Famous Paintings

It is a simple, undramatic scene that features a dirt road bordered by lush fields and trees of green. A key painting in his oeuvre, this is one of a small number of works in which he drew inspiration from the Metaphysical school of painting and most particularly shows the influence of the leading artists of this style, Giorgio de Chirico and Carlo Carra.

Giorgio MORANDI (1890

The emphasis is firmly not illusionistic, but about creating a relationship between closely-related colors and forms. A small rust fleck in the lower left margin corner. Condition Report: For condition report please contact our auction house via email info.

Giorgio MORANDI (1890

Provenance: Giancarlo Pasi Collection, Ravenna.

Giorgio MORANDI (1890

He lived first on Via Lame where his brother Giuseppe who died in 1903 and his sister Anna were born. While there is little detail, he captures the essence of the sun and the natural world, as experienced in this quiet town. GIORGIO MORANDI Giorgio Morandi, born July 20, 1890, Bologna, Italy—died June 18, 1964, Bologna , Italian painter and printmaker known for his simple, contemplative still lifes of bottles, jars, and boxes.
