Judaism

Every child is educated beforehand to prepare them for the world to come. We are obligated to consider our energy use and the sources from which it comes.

The Basic Tenets of the Jewish Faith

Each week, one section is read until the entire Torah is completed and the reading begins again.

Judaism: Basic Beliefs

It is mentioned in the Talmud and marks the age when a child becomes accountable for their action as a man or woman. I intentionally read to see if I could discover his personal leaning and I was no more sure after finishing than if I had simply guessed upon first hearing his name. Their God communicates to believers through prophets and rewards good deeds while also punishing evil.

What is Judaism?

At the end of the ceremony, the groom breaks a glass with his foot, symbolizing the continuous mourning for the destruction of the Temple, and the scattering of the Jewish people.
