Barbara Hepworth: A Pictorial Autobiography

It's like a published scrapbook, but without all the frills. Along with artists such as Ben Nicholson and Naum Gabo, Hepworth was a leading figure in the colony of artists who resided in St Ives. Dame Jocelyn Barbara Hepworth DBE 10 January 1903 — 20 May 1975 was an English artist and sculptor. This book presents a pictorial record of her life, work and writings over 40 years, from her childhood years to her first marriage to the sculptor John Skeaping and her second marriage to Ben Nicholson; and from figuration through geometric and organic abstraction to the internationally acclaimed grandeur of her large-scale, post-war work.

Barbara Hepworth: A Pictorial Autobiography

Her work exemplifies Modernism and in particular modern sculpture. This book presents a pictorial record of her life, work and writings over 40 years, from her childhood years to her first marriage to the sculptor John Skeaping and her second marriage to Ben Nicholson; and from figuration through geometric and organic abstraction to the internationally acclaimed grandeur of her large-scale, post-war work.

Barbara Hepworth: A Pictorial Autobiography

All of our books without an ISBN number normally pre-1970 in date are described individually in detail. What a household that must have been.

It's incredibly short on text, but Hepworth's discussions of her sculptural technique are invaluable for understanding her work.

I love it and have cited it over 50 times, at least, in my first chapter. It's like a published scrapbook, but without all the frills. It is Hepworth's own autobiography, but she interjects her own personal snapshots.

Ben Nicholson was her husband, which I didn't know.
