In sharing the opportunity for harvest of a shellfish resource, the State and Tribe may also consider the time of fishing, quality of the shellfish, ease of harvesting, and catch per unit effort for the shellfish involved to ensure that there is equal sharing of the harvest opportunity. Given these findings regarding the action proposed by Bonneville, this document records Bonneville's determination to operate and maintain the Columbia River System, in collaboration with the Corps and Reclamation, consistent with the action as described in the 2020 Biological Assessment, the 2020 Clarification Letter, and the Incidental Take Statements, including all terms and conditions and reasonable.

Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission Annual Report 2019

Much of the safety improvements needed to public and private infrastructure roads, rails, water intakes, pipes in the reach of the lower Snake River would be conducted by other entities. Indigenous peoples before and during colonization understood themselves to be part of extended kinship networks that dictated social obligations. However, Charles Wright and Susie Bonga-Wright did eventually marry, and they sustained their respectable reputations among both Episcopalians and the Leech Lake Ojibwes.

Working Paper on Black and Native Historical Intersections

We know that cooperation is the only way we will all be able to meet the many challenges we face including declining salmon runs, global warming, and the need for developing sustainable energy sources and economies. The tribes and the federal Environmental Protection Agency EPA work to address water quality issues important to the protection of tribal rights and resources.
