Spitzer Have you ever seen the inside of a carbon steel pipe used for sodium chloride brine service? Therefore the reluctance to release the X-h2 might be while Fuji ponders what elements of the X-h1 and X-t3 to either keep in separate lines or to harmonise into a new ibis body! I doubt it will be successful, though. The rest of the industry is moving ahead boldly, and Microsoft is still at the drawing board. Personal Edition The author can choose to leave the storyboard public or mark it as Unlisted.
