Black Power

In the first place, the theme system had begun to break down.

World History: Cultures, States, and Societies (Global Remix)

This movement saw the translation not only of philosophy, but also of medicine—indeed, in the Muslim world, philosophers often served as physicians—so the medical works of philosophers and physicians such as Ibn Sina whose name Western Europeans pronounced as Avicenna were read avidly by Christians in Western Europe. .

A Global Civilization for all Life.

It is a burden Africa cannot bear.

A Global Civilization for all Life.

This film and all of the films in the Penn Museum collection are copyrighted by the Penn Museum, and are not in the public domain. A Global Government can act faster and be more effective and efficient in the context of the Global Civilization, this great, wide, wonderful world made of all these diverse global communities within each nation-state.
