The Younger Generation: The Labour Party and the 1959 Youth Commission on JSTOR

In this essay, I will look at the factors which led to the Labour victory.

The Younger Generation: The Labour Party and the 1959 Youth Commission on JSTOR

Britain as a country in the year 1951 stood as a country widely effected by the Second World War and the country reflected visible damage which the war had caused.

Dominance between the years 1951

For the public they left their trust with the labour.

Britain economy 1951

. The 1959 election was held at the peak of the Cold War, clearly awful timing for a party to have a disarmament policy.
