I English Language

They are but a few of the vocabulary learning strategies available in the literature; the reason why they were chosen over others is because a they require minimum preparation in terms of resources; b do not involve any financial commitment; c have high surrender value; d for most of them there is plenty of research pointing to their effectiveness; e I use them on a daily basis and they have helped me learn 7 languages. Examples: Arabic, an Arab, the Arabs; Gallic, a Gaul, the Gauls; Danish, a Dane, the Danes; Moorish, a Moor, the Moors; Polish, a Pole, or Poland, the Poles; Swedish, a Swede, the Swedes; Turkish, a Turk, the Turks.

These plural forms ought not to be initiated. This is NOT a retyped or an ocr'd reprint. In saying, 'A few of his adherents remained with him;' we insinuate, that they constituted a number sufficiently important to be formed into an aggregate: while, if the article be omitted, as, ' Few of his adherents remained with him; ' this implies, that he was nearly deserted, by representing them as individuals not worth reckoning up.
