Whenever I do not make this my contemplation, I perish.

Sunni Ahl

He said: Go where I ordered you, little Anas. Thabit said: So and so said: I tried my best to utter these prayers when I got up, but I could not do. I seek refuge in Thee from a punishment in Hell and a punishment in the grave.

Sunni Ahl

I was not going to sit when the devil came down. Lord of the heavens, Lord of the earth, Lord of everything, who splittest the grain and the kernel, who hast sent down the Torah, forelock Thou seizes. We were told that some slaves or servants had come to you.

Ibn Arabi's Book of the Fabulous Gryphon

Do not abandon me to myself for an instant, but put all my affairs in good order for me. Zaynab came on and began to abuse Aisha.

"The Genesis of Islamic Economics" Revisited

Kamilah yang memberi rezeki kepada mereka dan kepadamu.

"The Genesis of Islamic Economics" Revisited

To this he replied: The lord is Allah, the Blessed and Exalted. For an analysis of the general subject as it occurs in the teachings of another early Eastern Sufi, Sahl al-Tustarī, see G.

Ahl al

Ibn al-Sabbah said in his version: Muharramah means a mount which has not been used for riding.
