Doctrine of Man and Sin: Recommended Reading

Thy will is no longer the will of God, but is utterly perverse .... Why would any creature presume to know more or know better than its creator? Sin as an act of the will is to be separated from sins of ignorance, or mistakes.

Man and Sin: A Theological View by Piet Schoonenberg

Thomas Boston — 1964 Thomas Boston 1676-1732 was a minister in the Church in Scotland. Martin Luther — 1525 Luther himself, considered this book, written in response to Erasmus, among his best books.

Reformation Theology: Three Views on Man's Condition

Sin also offends God, and the law requires atonement through sacrifices, in many of which a victim gives its life blood for an atonement. Someone can make a persuasive defense for almost every offense.

FALL OF MAN

He does not fear God or serve Him. Posted by: Hello, I'm interested in hearing some opinions regarding the state of man and these passages. Otherwise, we would be nothing more than puppets, and God himself would have to be the cause and originator of all sin and evil.

Theologians Find Vines' 'Homosexuality Is Not a Sin' Thesis Not Persuasive

I am sure that the last verse quoted has come into question as to whether that is the meaning of the passage.
