1995 Melbourne University Law Review

The term policy under Table 58 is declared to be accessible and beneficial to the large segments of the Indian society. Sometimes these solutions show tremendous organizational ingenuity. The paper also discusses the proposed amendments to the Indian arbitration law and its ramifications on ITA.

BALTAZAR v. FOREVER 21, I

A private entity providing a legal regime under competitive market conditions, on the other hand, faces an incentive and can establish the organizational flexibility to optimize the level of complexity in its rules. It further argues that existence of an unconfirmed or unvacated arbitral award itself never supports a determination that a case or controversy exists.
