The Moon of Gomrath (Tales of Alderley, #2) by Alan Garner

The first to fall victim is Susan and I began to fear that the whole story was going to revolve around a heroic boy and his magical friends who needed to free the damsel in distress.

The Moon of Gomrath by Alan Garner

For it guards her against the evil that would crush her, and it leads her ever further from the ways of human life. That part, he says, was very hard for his wife to read. It is a magic beyond our guidance: it is magic of the heart, not of the head: it can be felt, but not known: and in that I see no good.
