Three works of his Last Supper still remain: in the abbey of Passignano sul Trasimeno, in the Ognissanti in Florence, and in the San Marco, Florence.

Fra Angelico

Following the suppression of the two convents in 1810 they were merged and redesigned in a neo-classical style as a hospice for the elderly in the early 19th century by Giuseppe del Rosso, becoming a workhouse in 1860, then being known as the Pia Casa di Lavoro. Roberts' study, however, demonstrates that these efforts can be extremely rewarding. In 1445 Angelico was summoned to Rome by Pope Eugenius IV to paint frescoes for the now destroyed Chapel of the Sacrament in the Vatican.

Santa Maria Novella

They later 1628 returned there when Cardinal Francesco Barberini moved the Carmelite nuns who had been in residence there to this church. A portion of this road passes through San Miniato. Link to this page: Fra Angelico Kiely discusses Fra Angelico's San Marco Altarpiece--a work that made Ruskin want to prostrate himself in front of it; Ruskin was ecstatic about the pearls on Lawrence's breastplate in which he conflated the stance of the martyr himself, the purity of Fra Angelico, and the cascade of biblical references about pearls.

And in fact the brief remained, rather strangely, a dead letter for the time being. Meanwhile this city's internal affairs also were developing in a way to make it ever more difficult for Savonarola given his temperament to avoid an eventual clash with the pope.

SAVONAROLA, GIROLAMO SAVONAROLA, GIROLAMO 1452 —1498 , was a Dominican preacher, reformer, and prophet. How keenly he observed it and how richly he rendered it, the world about him of colour and costume, of handsome heads and pictorial groupings! Four lovely chunky pietra serena Renaissance altars down each side.
